

Color the trail

Great horned owl

(Bubo virginianus)

“ I saw two large Owls [6] with remarkable long feathers on the sides of the head which resembled ears; I take them to be the large hooting owl tho: they are somewhat larger and their colours brighter than those common to the U’ States.” —Meriwether Lewis. 3 March 1806

• Follow   @lewisandclarknht • Discover www.nps.gov/LECL • Share #birdsoflewisandclark