

Color the trail

Snow goose

( Anser caerulescens )

“The white brant is very common in this country particularly below tidewater where they remain in vast quantities during the winter. they feed like the swan gees &c on the grass roots and seeds which they find in the marshes.” —Meriwether Lewis. March 8, 1806. Fort Clatsop, present day Oregon

---

• Follow   @lewisandclarknht • Discover www.nps.gov/LECL • Share #birdsoflewisandclark